

A Success Story from Eldorado Tools and Die Manufacturing Company Ltd in Waterloo, ON

Keyur Parekh, sales representative aims to please. He is results oriented, very methodical, versatile, and easy to be placed in any situation and moreover, he feels he belongs to the company which is very important to us. He will continue to be a very strong, staff member. “This kind of personality is what it takes to enhance the growth of the future of the company”. We have been very successful in placing over five new Canadians who are very excellent people and are all leading members in the organization.

Peter J Harry,
Founder and Managing Director
Eldorado Tools and Die Manufacturing Company

December 2009
